Domainer Mardi Gras 2010 Set To Roll Into New Orleans, Louisiana

Preminent Domainer Event Returns to The Big Easy

August 24th, 2009 –New Orleans, Louisiana – Domainer Mardi Gras (www.domainermardigras.com) announced today that it is returning to The Big Easy. Taking place February 11th – 13th, 2010 at the exquisite New Orleans Marriott in Louisiana, Domainer Mardi Gras 2010 will raise the bar for domain name conferences.

“Domainer Mardi Gras 2010 is heading back to the city of New Orleans for another exhilarating and productive weekend,” stated Michael Ward, Executive Director of Domainer Mardi Gras. “Domainer Mardi Gras, which debuted in 2009, was a phenomenal success for the entire domain industry. Domainers stated that the inaugural show was a hit and wanted to see it happen again in 2010. We listened and are moving forward with putting together a larger than life domainer extravaganza. In addition to quality industry panel sessions, and plenty of networking opportunities, Domainer Mardi Gras will also provide over the top entertainment, all during Mardi Gras, that combined will make for an unbelievable experience.”

Domainers, publishers, registries, registrars, investors, domain parking companies, members from the ICANN community and others are all invited to attend the one of a kind event. The theme and agenda for Domainer Mardi Gras 2010 will be announced in the coming weeks.

Hotel rooms at The New Orleans Marriott are available at the extremely low rate of $179. Early bird conference passes are available now through October 15th, 2009 at the affordable rate of $795. Attendees can also get an unbelievable $300 discount off a conference pass if they also stay at The New Orleans Marriott. A conference pass will allow attendees access to all conference sessions, meals, entertainment, including new activities to be revealed in the coming weeks, and the back by popular demand Bourbon St. Balcony. Registration is open now.

Domainer Mardi Gras 2010 is also planning to have specials and other prizes during the registration process.
